$14,000 JUDGMENT RENDERED IN COURT

Willard D. Root and Peoples Loan and Trust Co., Beneficiaries of Ruling in Suit on Note

E. E. CHAPPELL PLAINTIFF

Trial of Carl Murphy, Charged With Selling Mortgaged Property, Delayed Few Days

A court judgment totalling almost $14,000 was rendered this morning in the circuit court by Judge Sparks against Elias E. Chappell, in a complaint heard the other day on the matter involving a note, and foreclosure of a mortgage.

In awarding the judgment, the court gave Willard D. Root, the plaintiff, the sum of $11,327.99 and costs, and the Peoples Loan and Trust Company, which was a party to the defendant to answer to allegations, was also awarded judgment on its claim for $2,442.08 and costs. The court also ordered the mortgage foreclosed in order to make payment of the claims.

In the case of Mary E. Moore against the estate of George B. Moore, a claim for $10 and costs was allowed.

In the case of the Meyer Kiser corporation of Indianapolis against Orville Masters, a suit in replevin, the plaintiff has dismissed the case. The case of the state against Carl Murphy, charged with selling mortgaged property, was scheduled for trial Saturday, but on account of a misunderstanding, the matter was carried over until Monday and will be called for trial at that time.

The case of the State against Ralph Elwell, charged with assault and battery on his wife, was set for trial Monday but on account of the illness of Raymond Springer, the attorney for the defendant, the case was continued until January 21, when it has been set for trial.

Several other minor court issues, including a divorce or two, will probably be pushed ahead in court for Saturday to fill the vacancy made by the postponement of the state case that was set for trial.

NEW SALARIES INCREASE BILL REPORTED TODAY

Revision Differs Greatly From That Proposed by Postmaster General New to Congress

EFFORT TO DEFEAT BILL SEEN

(By United Press)
Washington, Jan. 2.—The Senate postoffice committee today reported out a new salaries increase bill with proposals for complete revision of the postal rates of the country, to provide revenue for the increase in salaries.

The revision differed greatly from that proposed by Postmaster General New in his recommendations to congress.

The new rate scales, however, would be only temporary, becoming effective, April 15, 1925, and terminating February 15, 1926, at which time a sub-committee would be appointed to report on their success.

Postal clerks associations here today charged that the action of the postoffice department in suspending six postal officials for complicity in a money raising scheme to promote the postal salaries increase bill was another step in a "deliberate and studied campaign to defeat the bill".

Thomas J. Flaherty, president of the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, declared the postoffice department had documents concerning the alleged scheme in its possession for four or five months prior to starting action.

NOMINATIONS SENT TO SENATE TODAY

President Coolidge Recommends A. B. Anderson for Judge of U. S. Circuit Court, 7th District

BALTZELL ALSO NOMINATED

Princeton, Ind., Judge Selected to Succeed Anderson After Calling at the White House

(By United Press)
Washington, Jan. 2.—President Coolidge today sent to the senate the following nominations:
To be United States circuit judge, seventh district, Albert B. Anderson of Indiana.

To be United States district judge, district of Indiana, Robert C. Baltzell of Princeton, Ind.

Judge Baltzell was summoned to Washington for an interview with President Coolidge and called at the white house last night.

Judge Anderson will fill the place on the bench of the circuit court of appeals in Chicago left vacant by the death of Judge Francis Baker, a Hoosier jurist, several months ago.

Salary of the Chicago judgeship is $12,000 a year. Judge Anderson now receives $7,500.

Appointed district judge in December, 1902, by President Roosevelt, Judge Anderson quickly became a national figure. His marked individuality and his determination to get at the bottom of cases regardless of legal technicalities made him known coast to coast.

In 1902 he heard the famous dynamite conspiracy case in which high officials of the structural iron workers' union were tried for numerous bomb outrages throughout the country, including the bombing of the plant of the Los Angeles Times.

During the nation wide coal strike of 1919, Judge Anderson issued an injunction against officials of the United Mine Workers of America enjoining them from enforcing the strike and later issued an order directing them to call off the strike.

The last big case heard by Judge Anderson on the Indiana district bench was the trial of Governor Warren T. McCray which resulted in the Hoosier executive being sentenced to 10 years imprisonment for fraudulent use of the mails.

Judge Anderson was born near Zionsville, Ind., Feb. 10, 1857. He was graduated from Wabash college in 1879. He was prosecutor of Montgomery county from 1886 to 1890.

BUYING OF POULTRY RESUMED

Adams Produce Co., Able to Ship to Eastern Markets

The Adams Produce company of this city has resumed buying poultry since eastern markets have been opened up and shipments are possible.

The Rushville concern had a car load of poultry in New York when the embargo order was issued, but managed to dispose of it elsewhere without being compelled to ship it back here.

No Decided Change in Temperature For Next 24 Hours Predicted For This Vicinity

No change in temperature is predicted for this vicinity, according to the weather department in the report for today, which states that the skies will be partly overcast, and with the mercury remaining within a few degrees of the present standing.

The coldest reached during last night was 22 degrees above zero, according to Elwood Kirkwood at Maunzy, and throughout the day there was little change noticed, with 24 degrees being reached shortly after noon, indicating that the mercury would remain between 20 to 24 for the next 24 hours.

The snowfall of the past 24 hours was very light, with only .4 of an inch being recorded. Indications this afternoon were for possibly snow flurries in this section, but no great amount was expected. Heavy snowfall, reaching blizzard proportions, is reported throughout the midwest and the east.

SUGGESTS PLAN FOR SETTLEMENT OF DEBT

French Finance Minister Presents Note to American Ambassador as Climax to Furor

HIS STATEMENT IS RECALLED

By A. L. BRADFORD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Jan. 2.—French Finance Minister Clementel today presented a note to American Ambassador Myron T. Herrick, suggesting a basis for settlement of France's debt to the United States and making a ten year moratorium.

The foreign office announced delivery of the note this afternoon.

The move for the debt settlement came as a climax to the furor over the subject aroused by the inventory presented to the chamber of deputies by Clementel a week ago.

The finance minister's remarks about France's ability to pay her debts and hinting at sentiment favoring a pooling of the war debt were misinterpreted, he explained afterwards. They caused such a sensation, however, that the French government lost no time in moving for a settlement.

Premier Herriot, who communicated personally with Ambassador Herrick on the subject early in the week, still is confined to bed.

FURNITURE MEN TO ATTEND MARKET

Prepare for Semi-Annual Pilgrimage to Chicago and Grand Rapids For Expositions

DISPLAYS BY ALL FACTORIES

Innis-Pearce Furniture Co., to Show at Grand Rapids This Year for First Time in 24 Years

Rushville furniture manufacturers are preparing for their semi-annual pilgrimage to the furniture expositions at Chicago and Grand Rapids, Mich., which will open Tuesday.

All local companies have displays at the shows and the Park Furniture company and the Rushville Furniture company will have direct factory representatives at the expositions, while the Innis-Pearce company will be represented by their salesmen.

The Innis-Pearce company is resuming the practice of showing its products at the Grand Rapids exposition for the first time since 1900, this year, having abandoned the custom of making a display twenty-four years ago.

Production is being increased at the Innis-Pearce plant, it is explained, which is one reason assigned for the company changing its policy in this respect.

Roy Waggener, of the Park Furniture company, will leave tonight for Grand Rapids, Mich., his display already having been shipped to the furniture city, and I. L. Endres of the Rushville Furniture company will leave Sunday evening for Chicago.

The Rushville company has been showing in Chicago for several years and now has a display in the Furniture Mart, a new building erected especially for the furniture show at a cost of nine million dollars. The building has one and one-half million feet of floor space.

The line of goods to be displayed at the mid-winter show by the Rushville factories is said to be one of the most attractive and most complete that has ever been sent out of the city. A good business is expected by the Rushville men. Orders which have been received during recent months indicate that buying will be good, if not brisk. Business at the local factories has been steady during the fall and early winter, and is a good indication of what may be expected at the January show.

Pieces on furniture will remain practically unchanged, it was stated. Some pieces will show a slight increase and others a similar price drop, but the change will not be sufficient to affect the retail price, it was stated.

Goods are being priced, however, for not more than sixty days delivery because of the possibility of advances in raw materials or labor, which might increase the cost of furniture.

There have been slight advances in lumber and in all products affected by the iron market, such as nails, screws and other hardware used in the manufacture of furniture.

PREPARING A SLANDER SUIT

W. D. Shepherd Wants Revenge on Those Who Started Inquiry

Chicago, Jan. 2.—Confident final reports on the death of Wm. McCintock, "millionaire orphan" would show death due to typhoid fever Wm D. Shepherd, foster-father of the youth, has prepared slander suits against the chief instigators of the investigation.

Typhoid fever caused the death of McCintock, Coroner Wolff announced today, thus practically closing the investigation into the death of the "millionaire orphan."

The chemical analysis of the vital organs failed to reveal the presence of poison, Wolff announced. The findings of Wolff's chemists, coincided with the report made by physicians acting for Shepherd.

"That report will show that Billy died from typhoid fever and will give the lie to all these insinuations that death was caused by some other agency," Shepherd said. "I shall file slander suits fifteen minutes after the report is made."

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, tallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

Richard Dix at Princess

All who enjoy a real fast-moving action-drama will be right in their glory when Richard Dix's first Paramount starring picture, "Manhattan," opens at the Princess theatre today for a run of two days. The story is an adaptation by Paul Sloane and Frank Tattle of the novel, "The Definite Object," by Jeffery Farnol.

The star has the role of Peter Minuit whose great-great-grandfather purchase the island of Manhattan from the Indians and Peter is all for giving it back to them. "There might be some life in the old town then," says he.

You take it from this that Minuit is slightly bored with life. He is just that—a millionaire bachelor who has everything in life except that which he craves most—action, adventure, a definite object, something to live for, to strive to be worthy of. He finds action-plus in New York's Hell's Kitchen and a definite object in the beautiful sister of a youthful yegg whom he befriends.

Here's a role that suits Dix to a "T."

Beauty, Comedy Featured

Beauty and comedy are the predominant features of Viola Dana's new Metro-Goldwyn picture, "The Beauty Prize," which is coming today to the Castle theatre for a run of two days. The story by Nina Wilcox Putnam has for its heroine a New York manicurist, who is mistaken for a society girl when her mother takes care of a wealthy matron's home during the summer.

She enters a beauty contest, and is chosen to represent the state at the national finals. She wins and is about to accept the cash prize, when she decides she has triumphed under false pretenses, and gives the money back. In order to escape the publicity of her act, she steals away to a small town, and nearly starves. Then occurs a climax said to be the newest thing in climaxes. Pat O'Malley appears opposite the star. Others in the cast include Edward Connelly, Eddie Phillips, Joan Standing, and Edith Yorke. Lloyd Ingraham was the director, while Winifred Dunn did the continuity, and John Arnold was the photographer.

Logansport—Following fights in dance halls, Logansport has started a drive against "youth and moonshine."

Tried and Proved:—As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the Lord is tried; he is a buckler to all them that trust him. II Samuel 22:31.

Tree Butchers

Tree butchering is to be expected, but it is rare for trees to be mutilated in the wintertime, when their chances to recover from the atrocious slaughter are not so favorable as in warm weather.

Several instances of indiscriminate trimming of trees have been called to the attention of Mayor Thomas and he has instructed the police to enforce the city ordinance providing that no one shall be permitted to trim trees standing on lawns without first obtaining consent of the proper city authorities. There is also a state law which provides a penalty for mutilation of trees.

While we as a community are trying to acquire something, we should not lose sight of that which we already possess, but endeavor to conserve and protect it.

Nothing adds to the attractiveness of a city like streets lined with beautiful shade trees. They lend a home-like atmosphere of the community and likewise provide inviting shade during the warm days of summer.

If the people of the present generation were the only ones to be considered, the indiscriminate cutting of shade trees might go on unhampered, but there will be others coming on, when we leave, who will relish the beauties of the trees and the shade they provide.

Trees have to be trimmed, but there is no occasion for butchering them, as in some instances that have been noted. The limbs should be cut off squarely, to avoid tearing the bark from that part of the limb remaining on the tree. It taxes the vitality of a tree to heal itself and exposing more of its tender parts to the elements only invites destruction for the tree.

In removing trees, it is also advisable to cut off a limb even with the branch attached to the limb. If cut off above the branch, it dies down to the branch because the stump has no means of obtaining nourishment.

While the trees are barren, the work of the tree butchers of the past is more apparent. Rotting stumps of limbs are sad reminders of what some thoughtless people have done. Jagged limbs that have fallen prey to the insects, some of them ready to fall to the ground, should be a warning to home owners that the utmost care should be taken to preserve the shade trees of Rushville.

Child Labor

Advocates of the child labor amendment to the federal constitution will try to force every state legislature in session this year to submit the question to a vote of the people.

Such an effort will be made in Indiana, but the merits of the question are little understood by the average person.

Opponents of the proposed amendment say that it would give congress jurisdiction over labor of all persons under 18 years of age and would create a new department at Washington with an army of officials traveling all over the United States telling families of good American citizens how to bring up their children and issuing permits whether boys and girls up to 18 years of age shall be permitted to labor, and under what conditions.

Advocates of the measure assert that premature child work, night work, over long hours and hazardous employment lessen the chances of those thus forced to labor, when they are entitled to equal right with their more fortunate brothers and sisters.

Those opposed to the amendment have made much of the fact that Massachusetts recently buried the amendment under an avalanche of negative votes, but the group in favor counters by calling attention to the fact that Massachusetts and the other two states that have voted against the proposal are textile mill states, the textile mills employing more children than any other manufacturing industry in the United States.

Thus the war of words waxes hot. How it will terminate can not now be forecast, but the sentiment seems to prevail that the regulation of child labor is largely a matter for states to determine.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—When Associate Justice Joseph McKenna of the United States Supreme Court resigns his seat on that high bench, as he is understood to be about to do, he will have set a record as the most resigned gentleman in high official circles.

Pack in the early '80s, after a couple of terms as prosecuting attorney of Solano county, California, and a brief period in the California Legislature, McKenna was elected to Congress.

In the midst of his fourth term he was offered appointment, by President Harrison, as United States circuit judge. Whereupon he resigned as member of Congress and mounted the bench.

When McKenna was elected president, he spotted McKenna as likely cabinet material and tendered him the post of attorney general. So McKenna resigned the judgeship and entered the cabinet.

Within a year, however, Justice Field having retired from the Supreme bench, the little lawyer from the west was picked for the vacant seat, and so resigned his cabinetship.

That was 27 years ago. Since then he has served continuously on the Supreme bench, being now in point of service the oldest member of the court. Justice Holmes, who is two years older, is three years younger in service on the bench.

Physically frail and now in his 82d year, McKenna has decided to resign once more, this time retiring to the quiet of private life for the few years that perhaps remain to him.

THE scrapping member of the Supreme Court, however, is its oldest member—Oliver Wendell Holmes. Justice Holmes, son of the Oliver Wendell who helped make Boston the American literary center of the mid-19th century, is in his 84th year.

And although rumor also has attached itself to him as about ready to resign the seat he has held for 22 years, it is now considered certain he will outlast McKenna on the court.

JUSTICE HOLMES has an enviable military as well as judicial record behind him. Within a month after he was graduated from Harvard College in '61, he had been commissioned first lieutenant in the 20th Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry, and had started for the front.

In October of that year, in the battle of Ball's Bluff, he was shot through the breast. Recovering from this wound, and being promoted to a captaincy, he led his men into the battle of Antietam in September, '62, and got a bullet through the neck.

Seemingly the rebels couldn't entirely miss his long, lank form, for the following year at Marye's Heights, Fredericksburg, he was shot through the head.

This latter wound, he has often said, might have been embarrassing had he not had two previous scars to attest his claim that he wasn't running away. He wound up the war as aide to General H. G. Wright, having been breveted as major, lieutenant colonel and colonel.

And immediately entered law school to prepare himself, as it afterward proved, for the Supreme bench.

NEW LAMP BURNS
94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up; is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. N. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

APPETITE!

"Yes! thank you."

A GOOD appetite means a cheerful disposition.

You may have a good appetite if the blood that goes constantly to your vital organs is pure. S.S.S. purifies the blood—a good appetite follows and you will have a clear complexion and will be strong, cheerful and healthy.

Don't go on feeling up one day and down the next—hardly sick but never well—losing "pep," punch and ambition. Hearty eaters are the red-blooded men and women. Enjoy your food! Get back your strength and energy! Reclaim yourself before it is too late! People in a physically run-down condition are an easy prey to disease.

S.S.S. is what is needed. Your blood needs purifying. Your blood-cells supply the energy which keeps your body well and fit. S.S.S. aids Nature in supplying new red-blood-cells—the spark that renews your system. Carefully selected, scientifically proportioned and prepared herbs and barks make up S.S.S.—the great blood purifier which gives Nature a helping hand.

Get back the lost appetite, the missing vitality, the keen, sparkling eyes, that look of determination. S.S.S. will give you more energy, vitality and vigor and a more up and going appearance.

FANS CELEBRATE IN BLIZZARD

Zero Weather Holds No Terrors For Notre Dame Adherents

South Bend, Ind., Jan. 2—Thousands of victory crazed football fans crowded the snow covered streets of South Bend last night and celebrated amid a blizzard and zero weather the Notre Dame triumph over Leland Stanford at Pasadena, Calif. 27 to 70, Thursday.

Parades, impromptu demonstrations in public places and general hilarity followed announcement of the final play.

Crowds surged through every radio shop, telegraph station, newspaper office and public hall where grippages were operated during the game.

Plans were immediately started for welcoming Rockne and his fighting Irishmen when they return from California next week.

New Champion Can "Take It"

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Jan. 2—Every time the vicissitudes of ringdom give us a new champion, we hold him up to the light to see how he got that way.

The past year kept the court jewelers of fistiana busy fitting old crowns to new heads, the most recent of which belongs to a stocky little Brooklyn Italian named Edward Vincent Martino, our new bantamweight champion.

Eddie Martin ("Cannonball Martin" Joe Humphries calls him) like many of our present crop of non-fighting title holders, came into the championship by virtue of a dubious decision after 15 rounds of milling with Abe Goldstein, the erstwhile incumbent. But Eddie says he isn't going to be one of the non-fighters long. He promises to bring his new crown into the ring any time that his vaudeville engagements permit.

Martin is champion for the same reason "Bat" Nelson once was champion—because he can "take it" and keep right on "taking it" until the other fellow gets tired and is ready to be pushed over.

Veteran of some four score ring battles, the "Cannonball" has no record for knockouts. He is not a hard hitter. But he is as persistent as a scared female hornet, and about as much bother for those in the ring with him. There is no waltz time when Eddie Martin does battle.

From going to gong the new champion is on top of his man, slam, bang. Like the "Battler" of old, he is always boring in, boring in socking from every angle, refusing to rest or pose for the movies or waste time in clowning. Being a Brooklyn Italian with nine brothers Eddie likes to fight. He always had to.

The kid is short, even for a bantam, and stocky, with legs like a molar and a chest like a barrel. His arms are short, another disadvantage which he overcomes by getting in where there are plenty long enough to reach his man.

NOMINATION SENT TO SENATE TODAY

and was practicing law in Crawfordsville at the time of his appointment to the federal bench. Judge Robert Baltzell, who was nominated to succeed Anderson, was born in Lawrence county, Ill., Aug. 15, 1870.

He worked his way through high school and taught school for two years to secure money to pay his expenses at the Marion Law School, Marion, Ind.

Graduating with honors from that institution in 1904, he took up the practice of law at Princeton, Ind., and was elected judge of the Gibson county court in 1910.

Judge Baltzell enlisted in the army in 1917 and was in charge of the draft in Indiana with the rank of major.

WIN THE FIRST

The first game of the year will be played tonight at Carthage. Win the first, you Lions, and then win all of em.

OTHER BIG GAMES

Among other important games on the schedule tonight will be the following:

Anderson at Connersville
Sedford at Franklin.
Elwood at Newcastle
Frankfort at Gary
Manual at Kokomo
Muncie at Richmond.
Rochester at Logansport.
Washington at Mitchell.

SATURDAY NIGHT

On Saturday night, the games will be:
Stivers (Dayton, O.) at Martinsville
Lizton at Brownsburg.

(Editor's note: The last named game is for Coach Swain's benefit. He came from Lizton.)

Word today from Carthage stated that the curtain raiser will be played tonight at 7:15 between two junior high school teams of Carthage and that the big game will follow about an hour later. Carthage reported their players in first class shape, and they are confident of putting up a big scrap against the county seat team. They have sent word down, that they expect to "hold them Lions" to a low score, which might mean they expect to "Tame them Lions."

Follow the sleigh ahead of you tonight, and go to Carthage.

Other Hot Ones Tonight

Other games in this vicinity tonight will be hotly contested and will include the following:
Manilla and Moscow at Blue Ridge
Morristown at Wilkinson
Milroy at Waldron
Laurel at Brownsville.
Knightstown at Thorntown
Jings at Everton
Hagerstown at Spiceland.

Carthage will probably line-up tonight with Alexander and R. Siler at forwards; Heim at center; Tetric and Renegar at guards. WATCH HEIM AND SILER!

Same to Y. Oie Top!

"Crowds on the Sidelines" the basketball column edited by Cash Keller in the Huntington Press, celebrated his fifth birthday yesterday, and sent his best wishes for the New Year to Hittin' em. We wish him many more birthdays.

Connersville gave the Bull Dogs at Columbus a run for their money Wednesday night, and came within ten points of winning. Tonight they will attempt to hold Anderson to a low score, and if possible beat 'em, to it, C'ville, if you don't beat 'em, someone else will.

Markin' em up at Newcastle comes out with the word that the new electric score board will be put up and in operation for the game tonight, when they play Elwood. It works automatically and cost $300. It will be a fine thing for their splendid gym. We'd be satisfied down here with a new gym, and could manage to keep score on almost anything.

Time to Start Is Now!

In building the schedule for next year, Coach Swain says he can get many good games away from home, but the gym here is a draw back for return games, so guess we will have to travel next year unless the movement to build a gym is started before long.

George Purcell at Vincennes wonders when Passaic will play its first game of basketball with an Indiana team? Probably as soon as Shoot-in 'em's dime club grows with common interest to the amount necessary to bring them here.

Watching the Fools in the Muncie Press, published a list of important games for Wednesday night, and figured out the winners. He said Rushville should not have much trouble defeating Darlington. As far as we know, Rushville must have forfeited that game 2 to 0, because they didn't appear on the floor.

After the Grecian artists at Newcastle, better known as Trojans, had their name stolen by Columbus and given to Connersville, along comes Markin' em up at Newcastle and says to the Columbus sport writer, "your name sure is MUD with us now, insinuating that we were formerly called IKMJKS. That name is reserved especially for Connersville."

Down at Shelbyville, "Short Passes" in the Republican has finally come to life, after being crowded out all December with Santa Claus letters. He says that Greensburg wasn't satisfied with beating them, but also swiped his title for their sport column, and so we now have two "Short Passes", and if these two fellows ever get close enough together there may be several short passes.

WE HEAD THE LIST IN THE DISTRICT RACE

The following comment is taken from the Newcastle Courier, who noticed the original article in the Richmond Item. He says:

"Mutt and Jeff" in a contribution to Drippin's to the Draperies of the Richmond Item, places Newcastle in ninth place in their Big Ten. In a list of outstanding teams of this district he gives Newcastle second place, and lines the teams up as follows: (1) Rushville, (2) Newcastle, (3) Lincoln, Cambridge City, (4) Connersville, (5) Richmond. This in our estimation, is very close to the truth. Rushville has a strong outfit, Cambridge City is not to be sneezed at and Connersville is coming. Morton is at the tail end, which is right, since the Red Devils have shown little this year. In their letter to Drippin's Mutt and Jeff use some logical judgment in picking their Big Ten. They said a "Big Ten" should be picked by comparative scores and not individual feelings. Although a person may feel their team is best, as we do here, they should use judgment in picking a big ten."

ANYWAY, WE DON'T TAKE ANY CHANCES

Arlington, Ind.
Dear Hittin' em:—Say, Rushville need not be afraid of Carthage as ordinarily they wouldn't beat a flock of rabes, but last Friday night Arlington was worse than that. They forgot that they were supposed to play the first half, and just played the second half, outclassing Carthage just as they might have all along if they had only played as they know how.

The writer for the above has signed the name of "Believe Me", and continues to say that the Arlington team has undergone a shaking up by Coach Hyatt, and that from now on they are going out to play basketball from the start to finish, and win games.

So tonight, we're off to take in Carthage. The Little Cubs are off to take on Richmond. Pull for two wins and start the new year right.

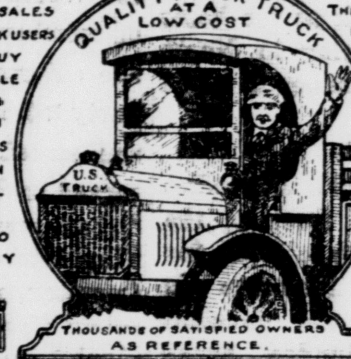

Kewanee, Ill., Jan. 1—Charles Lakaskey was unable to gratify his ambition to see "Red" Grange, who spoke at a Kiwanis meeting here. Lakaskey broke his leg in a high school football game this fall. Hearing of this, Grange made a special trip to the hospital to see the lad.

HIS RECORD MARRED, ENGINEER TAKES LIFE

Harry J. Colwell Hangs Himself at Minneapolis Home—Brooded Over Accident of Dec. 20

CAUSED DEATH OF 8 PEOPLE

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 2—Brooding because his clear record of twenty-one years as an engineer was marred when the dining car on back from his cab just in time to see rails, and went into the Chippewa river, causing the death of eight persons, Harry J. Colwell was found hanging to a beam in the basement of his home today.

Colwell was engineer on the Soo line train, the dining car of which plunged into the river at Chippewa Falls on December 20. When he returned home, he said he had looked back from his cab just in time to see the coach tumble from the trestle.

For a week he worried despite the fact the accident was attributed to a broken switch bolt. His record was marred.

On Wednesday he drew his pay, went home and ate supper and then went to the cellar to smoke.

One half hour later, his nineteen year old daughter Lois discovered the body. The coroner returned a verdict of suicide.

Seeks Oil

It's against the law to drill an oil well on a little tract of ground like Mrs. F. J. Patterson's town lot at Wortham, Tex. But she's doing it. When big oil companies leased land all around the aged widow's tiny homestead, folk said they were trying to "squeeze her out." So Mrs. Patterson begged an opportunity to seek oil on her property, too. She told the railroad commission of her 30-year struggle to give her only son proper medical attention. And the commission had a heart.

$14,000 JUDGMENT RENDERED IN COURT

Willard D. Root and Peoples Loan and Trust Co., Beneficiaries of Ruling in Suit on Note

E. E. CHAPPELL PLAINTIFF

Trial of Carl Murphy, Charged With Selling Mortgaged Property, Delayed Few Days

A court judgment totalling almost $14,000 was rendered this morning in the circuit court by Judge Sparks against Elias E. Chappell, in a complaint heard the other day on the matter involving a note, and foreclosure of a mortgage.

In awarding the judgment, the court gave Willard D. Root, the plaintiff, the sum of $11,327.99 and costs, and the Peoples Loan and Trust Company, which was a party to the defendant to answer to allegations, was also awarded judgment on its claim for $2,442.08 and costs. The court also ordered the mortgage foreclosed in order to make payment of the claims.

In the case of Mary E. Moore against the estate of George B. Moore, a claim for $40 and costs was allowed.

In the case of the Meyer Kiser corporation of Indianapolis against Orville Masters, a suit in replevin, the plaintiff has dismissed the case.

The case of the state against Carl Murphy, charged with selling mortgaged property, was scheduled for trial Saturday, but on account of a misunderstanding, the matter was carried over until Monday and will be called for trial at that time.

The case of the State against Ralph Elwell, charged with assault and battery on his wife, was set for trial Monday but on account of the illness of Raymond Springer, the attorney for the defendant, the case was continued until January 21, when it has been set for trial.

Several other minor court issues, including a divorce or two, will probably be pushed ahead in court for Saturday to fill the vacancy made by the postponement of the state case that was set for trial.

NEW SALARIES INCREASE BILL REPORTED TODAY

Revision Differs Greatly From That Proposed by Postmaster General New to Congress

EFFORT TO DEFEAT BILL SEEN

(By United Press)
Washington, Jan. 2.—The senate postoffice committee today reported out a new salaries increase bill with proposals for complete revision of the postal rates of the country, to provide revenue for the increase in salaries.

The revision differed greatly from that proposed by Postmaster General New in his recommendations to congress.

The new rate scales, however, would be only temporary, becoming effective, April 15, 1925, and terminating February 15, 1926, at which time a sub-committee would be appointed to report on their success.

Postal clerks associations here today charged that the action of the postoffice department in suspending six postal officials for complicity in a money raising scheme to promote the postal salaries increase bill was another step in a "deliberate and studied campaign to defeat the bill".

Thomas J. Flaherty, president of the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, declared the postoffice department had documents concerning the alleged scheme in its possession for four or five months prior to starting action.

Judge Anderson will fill the place on the bench of the circuit court of appeals in Chicago left vacant by the death of Judge Francis Baker, a Hoosier jurist, several months ago.

Salary of the Chicago judgeship is $12,000 a year. Judge Anderson now receives $7,500.

Appointed district judge in December, 1902, by President Roosevelt, Judge Anderson quickly became a national figure. His marked individuality and his determination to get at the bottom of cases regardless of legal technicalities made him known coast to coast.

In 1902 he heard the famous dynamite conspiracy case in which high officials of the structural iron workers' union were tried for numerous bomb outrages throughout the country, including the bombing of the plant of the Los Angeles Times.

During the nation wide coal strike of 1919, Judge Anderson issued an injunction against officials of the United Mine Workers of America enjoining them from enforcing the strike and later issued an order directing them to call off the strike.

The last big case heard by Judge Anderson on the Indiana district bench was the trial of Governor Warren T. McCray which resulted in the Hoosier executive being sentenced to 10 years imprisonment for fraudulent use of the mails.

Judge Anderson was born near Zionsville, Ind., Feb. 10, 1857. He was graduated from Wabash college in 1879. He was prosecutor of Montgomery county from 1886 to 1890.

BUYING OF POULTRY RESUMED

Adams Produce Co., Able to Ship to Eastern Markets

The Adams Produce company of this city has resumed buying poultry since eastern markets have been opened up and shipments are possible.

The local company stopped buying before Christmas, due to an embargo on poultry in eastern cities on account of a poultry disease. The embargo has been raised in nearly all eastern cities, with the exception of New York City.

The Rushville concern had a car load of poultry in New York when the embargo order was issued, but managed to dispose of it elsewhere without being compelled to ship it back here.

22 ABOVE MERCURY LOW MARK

No Decided Change in Temperature For Next 24 Hours Predicted For This Vicinity

No change in temperature is predicted for this vicinity, according to the weather department in the report for today, which states that the skies will be partly overcast, and with the mercury remaining within a few degrees of the present standing.

The coldest reached during last night was 22 degrees above zero, according to Elwood Kirkwood at Maury, and throughout the day there was little change noted, with 24 degrees being reached shortly after noon, indicating that the mercury would remain between 20 to 24 for the next 24 hours.

The snowfall of the past 24 hours was very light, with only 4 of an inch being recorded. Indications this afternoon were for possibly snow flurries in this section, but no great amount was expected. Heavy snowfall, reaching blizzard proportions, is reported throughout the midwest and the east.

Heaviest Since 1893

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 2.—The local weather bureau today reported a snowfall of 1.8 inches on New Year's day, heaviest New Year's day snow since 1893.

The snow was general throughout the state, but there was little interruption in railroad and interurban traffic.

Slightly warmer weather was forecast for today.

Three persons were hurt in auto accidents in Indianapolis caused by slippery pavements.

Blizzard Hits New York

New York, Jan. 2.—New York City awoke in the grip of a blizzard which hampers the city's transportation facilities, tangled traffic in the harbor and sent a biting snow, whipped by a 35 mile gale to the extreme detriment of pedestrians.

The first severe snow storm of winter arrived unexpectedly during the night after a moderate New Year's day. Swirling gusts of a fine penetrating snow blinded persons on the streets and made traffic conditions very dangerous.

The vessel was abandoned shortly after 1 p. m. today. She is about fifteen miles off Lewes. The Clyde liner provided a special train going by way of Wilmington for passengers. Many passengers lost all their trunks and other possessions which were stored in the hold of the vessel.

SUGGESTS PLAN FOR SETTLEMENT OF DEBT

French Finance Minister Presents Note to American Ambassador as Climax to Furor

HIS STATEMENT IS RECALLED

By A. L. BRADFORD

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Jan. 2.—French Finance Minister Clementel today presented a note to American Ambassador Myron T. Herrick, suggesting a basis for settlement of France's debt to the United States and making a ten year moratorium.

The foreign office announced delivery of the note this afternoon.

The move for the debt settlement came as a climax to the furor over the subject aroused by the inventory presented to the chamber of deputies by Clementel a week ago.

The finance minister's remarks anent France's ability to pay her debts and hinting at sentiment favoring a pooling of the war debt were misinterpreted, he explained afterwards. They caused such a sensation, however, that the French government lost no time in moving for a settlement.

Premier Herriot, who communicated personally with Ambassador Herrick on the subject early in the week, still is confined to bed.

KILLS WIFE AND SELF

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 2.—Using a shotgun his son-in-law had borrowed for a hunting trip, Frank McKinney, 46, today shot and killed his wife Mrs. Gertrude Baker McKinney, and then blew the top of his head off. In a statement to police, Mrs. Margaret Roseberg, a daughter blamed her mother's attention to another man for the tragedy.

FURNITURE MEN TO ATTEND MARKET

Prepare for Semi-Annual Pilgrimage to Chicago and Grand Rapids For Expositions

DISPLAYS BY ALL FACTORIES

Innis-Pearce Furniture Co., to Show at Grand Rapids This Year for First Time in 24 Years

Rushville furniture manufacturers are preparing for their semi-annual pilgrimage to the furniture expositions at Chicago and Grand Rapids, Mich., which will open Tuesday.

All local companies have displays at the shows and the Park Furniture company and the Rushville Furniture company will have direct factory representatives at the expositions, while the Innis-Pearce company will be represented by their salesmen.

The Innis-Pearce company is resuming the practice of showing its products at the Grand Rapids exposition for the first time since 1900, this year, having abandoned the custom of making a display twenty-four years ago.

Production is being increased at the Innis-Pearce plant, it is explained, which is one reason assigned for the company changing its policy in this respect.

Roy Waggener, of the Park Furniture company, will leave tonight for Grand Rapids, Mich., his display already having been shipped to the furniture city, and I. L. Endres of the Rushville Furniture company will leave Sunday evening for Chicago.

The Rushville company has been showing in Chicago for several years and now has a display in the Furniture Mart, a new building erected especially for the furniture show at a cost of nine million dollars. The building has one and one-half million feet of floor space.

The line of goods to be displayed at the mid-winter show by the Rushville factories is said to be one of the most attractive and most complete that has ever been sent out of the city. A good business is expected by the Rushville men. Orders which have been received during recent months indicate that buying will be good, if not brisk. Business at the local factories has been steady during the fall and early winter, and is a good indication of what may be expected at the January show.

Prices on furniture will remain practically unchanged, it was stated. Some pieces will show a slight increase and others a similar price drop, but the change will not be sufficient to affect the retail price, it was stated.

Goods are being priced, however, for not more than sixty days delivery because of the possibility of advances in raw materials or labor, which might increase the cost of furniture.

There have been slight advances in lumber and in all products affected by the iron market, such as nails screws and other hardware used in the manufacture of furniture.

W. D. Shepherd Wants Revenge on Those Who Started Inquiry

Chicago, Jan. 2.—Confident final reports on the death of Wm. McClintock, "millionaire orphan" would show death due to typhoid fever Wm. D. Shepherd, foster-father of the youth, has prepared slander suits against the chief instigators of the investigation.

Typhoid fever caused the death of McClintock, Coroner Wolff announced today, thus practically closing the investigation into the death of the "millionaire orphan."

The chemical analysis of the vital organs failed to reveal the presence of poison, Wolff announced. The findings of Wolff's chemists, coincided with the report made by physicians acting for Shepherd.

"That report will show that Billy died from typhoid fever and will give the lie to all these insinuations that death was caused by some other agency," Shepherd said. "I shall file slander suits fifteen minutes after the report is made."

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color. These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, yellow skin, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

Four-wheel Brakes, Balloon Tires—and New DUOCO Finish

Since the days of the first horseless carriage, the motor car industry has been practically revolutionized. Self-starters, balloon tires, four-wheel brakes—these and a score of other improvements have changed the old "one-lunger" into the fast, noiseless, efficient pleasure car of today.

Yet until du Pont chemists perfected Duco, no radical change had been made in motor car finishes.

Now comes Duco Finish—as different from old-style finishes as day from night. Duco has already been used by manufacturers of cars representing millions in value. Purchasers of these cars are proving to their own satisfaction that Duco is waterproof, weatherproof, every claim made for this finish.

Duco is waterproof, weatherproof, soft. It has a distinctive, soft lustre that actually improves with age. Bumps and scratches hardly affect it. Its beautiful colors are non-fading. Come to our shop and see us test Duco with boiling water, ice, steam, caustic soda, road tar and mud. Here at last is a finish that will last as long as your car does. You'll want it—you won't be satisfied until you get it. And we can refinish your car in one-third to one-half the usual time.

Richard Dix at Princess

All who enjoy a real fast-moving action-drama will be right in their glory when Richard Dix's first Paramount starring picture, "Manhattan," opens at the Princess theatre today for a run of two days. The story is an adaptation by Paul Sloane and Frank Tuttle of the novel, "The Definite Object," by Jeffery Farnol.

The star has the role of Peter Minuit whose great-great-grandfather purchased the island of Manhattan from the Indians and Peter is all for giving it back to them. "There might be some life in the old town then," says he.
You take it from this that Minuit is slightly bored with life. He is just that—a millionaire bachelor who has everything in life except that which he craves most—action, adventure, a definite object, something to live for, to strive to be worthy of. He finds action-plus in New York's Hell's Kitchen and a definite object in the beautiful sister of a youthful yegg whom he befriends.
Here's a role that suits Dix to a "T."

Beauty, Comedy Featured

Beauty and comedy are the predominant features of Viola Dana's new Metro-Goldwyn picture, "The Beauty Prize," which is coming today to the Castle theatre for a run of two days. The story by Nina Wilcox Putnam has for its heroine a New York manicurist, who is mistaken for a society girl when her mother takes care of a wealthy matron's home during the summer.
She enters a beauty contest, and is chosen to represent the state at the national finals. She wins and is about to accept the cash prize, when she decides she has triumphed under false pretenses, and gives the money back. In order to escape the publicity of her act, she steals away to a small town, and nearly starves. Then occurs a climax said to be the newest thing in climaxes. Pat O'Malley appears opposite the star. Others in the cast include Edward Connelly, Eddie Phillips, Joan Standing, and Edith Yorke. Lloyd Ingraham was the director, while Winifred Dunn did the continuity, and John Arnold was the photographer.

Logansport—Following fights in dance halls, Logansport has started a drive against "youth and moonshine."

Tried and Proved:—As for God, his way is perfect; he is a buckler to all them that trust him. II Samuel 22:31.

PRAYER:—The law of the Lord is perfect converting the soul. Help heart; then it will perfect us.

Tree Butchers

Tree butchering is to be expected, but it is rare for trees to be mutilated in the wintertime, when their chances to recover from the atrocious slaughter are not so favorable as in warm weather.

Several instances of indiscriminate trimming of trees have been called to the attention of Mayor Thomas and he has instructed the police to enforce the city ordinance providing that no one shall be permitted to trim trees standing on lawns without first obtaining consent of the proper city authorities. There is also a state law which provides a penalty for mutilation of trees.

While we as a community are trying to acquire something, we should not lose sight of that which we already possess, but endeavor to conserve and protect it.

Nothing adds to the attractiveness of a city like streets lined with beautiful shade trees. They lend a home-like atmosphere of the community and likewise provide inviting shade during the warm days of summer.

If the people of the present generation were the only ones to be considered, the indiscriminate cutting of shade trees might go on unhindered, but there will be others coming on, when we leave, who will relish the beauties of the trees and the shade they provide.

Trees have to be trimmed, but there is no occasion for butchering them, as in some instances that have been noted. The limbs should be cut off squarely, to avoid tearing the bark from that part of the limb remaining on the tree. It takes the vitality of a tree to heal itself and exposing more of its tender parts to the elements only invites destruction for the tree.

In running trees, it is also advisable to cut off a limb even with the branch attached to the limb. If cut off above the branch, it dies down to the branch because the stump has no means of obtaining nourishment. While the trees are barren, the work of the tree butchers of the past is more apparent. Rotting stumps of limbs are sad reminders of what some thoughtless people have done. Jagged limbs that have fallen prey to the insects, some of them ready to fall to the ground, should be a warning to home owners that the utmost care should be taken to preserve the shade trees of Rushville.

Child Labor

Advocates of the child labor amendment to the federal constitution will try to force every state legislature in session this year to submit the question to a vote of the people.

Such an effort will be made in Indiana, but the merits of the question are little understood by the average person.

Opponents of the proposed amendment say that it would give congress jurisdiction over labor of all persons under 18 years of age and would create a new department at Washington with an army of officials traveling all over the United States telling families of good American citizens how to bring up their children and issuing permits whether boys and girls up to 18 years of age shall be permitted to labor, and under what conditions.

Advocates of the measure assert that premature child work, night work, over long hours and hazardous employment lessen the chances of those thus forced to labor, when they are entitled to equal right with their more fortunate brothers and sisters.

Those opposed to the amendment have made much of the fact that Massachusetts recently buried the amendment under an avalanche of negative votes, but the group in favor counters by calling attention to the fact that Massachusetts and the other two states that have voted against the proposal are textile mill states, the textile mills employing more children than any other manufacturing industry in the United States.

Thus the war of words waxes hot. How it will terminate can not now be forecast, but the sentiment seems to prevail that the regulation of child labor is largely a matter for states to determine.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTERBY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—When Associate Justice Joseph McKenna of the United States Supreme Court resigns his seat on that high bench, as he is understood to be about to do, he will have set a record as the most resigned gentleman in high official circles.

Back in the early '80s, after a couple of terms as prosecuting attorney of Solano county, California, and a brief period in the California Legislature, McKenna was elected to Congress.

In the midst of his fourth term he was appointed attorney general by President Harrison, as United States circuit judge. Whereupon he resigned as member of Congress and mounted the bench.

When McKenna was elected president, he spotted McKenna as likely cabinet material and tendered him the post of attorney general. So McKenna resigned the judgeship and entered the cabinet.

Within a year, however, Justice Field having retired from the Supreme bench, the little lawyer from the west was picked for the vacant seat, and so resigned his cabinetship.

That was 27 years ago. Since then he has served continuously on the Supreme bench, being now in point of service the oldest member of the court. Justice Holmes, who is two years older, is three years younger in service on the bench.

Physically frail and now in his 82d year, McKenna has decided to resign once more, this time retiring to the quiet of private life for the few years that perhaps remain to him.

THE scrappiest member of the Supreme Court, however, is its oldest member—Oliver Wendell Holmes. Justice Holmes, son of the Oliver Wendell who helped make Boston the American literary center of the mid-19th century, is in his 84th year.

And although he has been attached to the bench since 1902, he is still as alert as a cat.

ready to resign the seat he has held for 22 years, it is now considered certain he will outlast McKenna on the court.

JUSTICE HOLMES has an enviable military as well as judicial record behind him. Within a month after he was graduated from Harvard College in '61, he had been commissioned first lieutenant in the 20th Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry, and had started for the front.

In October of that year, in the battle of Ball's Bluff, he was shot through the breast. Recovering from this wound, and being promoted to a captaincy, he led his men into the battle of Antietam in September, '62, and got a bullet through the neck.

Seemingly the rebels couldn't entirely miss his long, lank form, for the following year at Marye's Heights, Fredericksburg, he was shot through the heel.

This latter wound, he has often said, might have been embarrassing had he not had two previous scars to attest his claim that he wasn't running away. He wound up the war as aide to General H. C. Wright, having been breveted as major, lieutenant colonel and colonel.

And immediately entered law school to prepare himself, as it afterward proved, for the Supreme bench.

PROBABLY Secretary of Interior Work believes in the efficacy of the gentle hint. Certainly he believes that Work is more than a family name, and that it should be more often spelled "work," with a small "w."

In keeping with this belief the secretary sent to all employees of his department a Christmas card on which, in addition to the old-time prayer: "Now I lay me," etc., was a second supplication as follows: "Now I get me up to work."

I pray Thee, Lord, I may not shirk.

If I should die before the night, I pray Thee, Lord, my work's all right.

Roots and Herbs Used in Medicine

The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., of Lynn, Mass., is recognized as the greatest user of roots and herbs in the world. Over half a million pounds are used annually in manufacturing Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. These herbs are gathered with the greatest care at the season of the year when the medicinal elements which they contain are at their best. This, in part, accounts for the wonderful efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in restoring ailing women to health and strength.

HIS RECORD MARRED, ENGINEER TAKES LIFE

CAUSED DEATH OF 8 PEOPLE

(By United Press) Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 2.—Brooding because his clear record of twenty-one years as an engineer was marred when the dining car on back from his cab just in time to see rails, and went into the Chippewa river, causing the death of eight persons, Harry J. Colwell was found hanging to a beam in the basement of his home today.

Colwell was engineer on the Soo line train, the dining car of which plunged into the river at Chippewa Falls on December 20. When he returned home, he said he had looked back from his cab just in time to see the coach tumble from the trestle.

For a week he worried despite the fact the accident was attributed to a broken switch bolt. His record was marred.

On Wednesday he drew his pay, went home and ate supper and then went to the cellar to smoke.

One half hour later, his nineteen year old daughter Lois discovered the body. The coroner returned a verdict of suicide.

It's against the law to drill an oil well on a little tract of ground like Mrs. F. J. Patterson's town lot at Wortham, Tex. But she's doing it. When big oil companies leased land all around the aged widow's tiny homestead, folk said they were trying to "squeeze her out." So Mrs. Patterson begged an opportunity to seek oil on her property, too. She told the railroad commission of her 20-year struggle to give her only son proper medical attention. And the commission had a heart.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

To Our Savings Depositors:

A "dividend" has just been credited to the account of each one of our Savings Depositors, in the form of Interest. If you will bring in your pass book the next time you come to the bank, the amount due you will be entered therein.

This is as much a Dividend as though you had clipped a coupon from a Bond, or had received a dividend check. Better, in fact, for from now on the interest itself will draw interest.

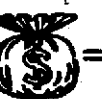

Some depositors will come in for a good share of this "melon" — others will not receive so much. If the amount in your case is small it is only because your savings have been small.

The more you save the more your Interest will be. A Savings Account is like a plant—it grows more rapidly when it is watered frequently.

Resolve NOW to make your next "dividend" larger by saving more and more often.

If YOUR name is not on our interest "payroll" you are missing something. Open a savings account now.

Why spoil a good dinner with a poor cup of coffee?

You now pay only a small fraction of a cent more per cup for 3/F than when green coffee was selling at a normal price, but you get the same flavor, smoothness and strength that have made 3/F so popular for years. Regardless of the high cost of green coffees to us, there has been no change in the 3/F blend.
